SUSTAINABLES

We Deliver the Essence of Nature by...

Maintaining Naturalness

Through the application of advanced analytical and sensory techniques, our flavors embody authentic citrus character and exhibit wide versatility. Our vast innovation network continually expands the portfolio by identifying unique, native citrus materials that retain true-to-fruit profiles.

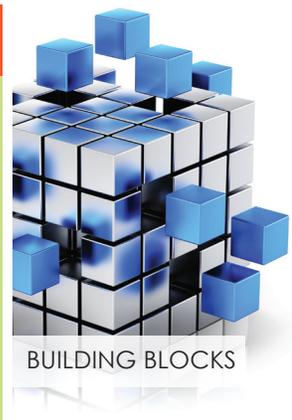

Accentuating Refreshment

Cutting-edge Consumer Insights & Market Research studies generate in-depth understanding of how citrus actively and passively influences consumer perception of refreshment. Balancing pronounced flavor attributes with complex nuances is critical to achieve favorable citrus profiles that compliment all beverage types.

Ensuring Sustainability

Takasago considers its long-standing heritage in citrus a valuable asset. This combination of entrenched expertise and innovative thinking is critical to addressing today's challenges with raw material availability, consistent profile quality, and whole-fruit utilization.
